Name _____ Parent Signature _____

- Welcome back!
- There's no school on May 9th. It's a Teacher Learning day.
- Check out our web site at www.MrWhitesClass.com.

MATH: Today we began our measurement unit. There's a parent letter in your folder that tells about this. Have one of your parents show you how to measure something. It can be anything, water, milk, wood, a car, your height, your weight, the length of your bed, anything!

Then write a sentence that tells how you did it:

READING: Today we got ready to read The Tortoise and the Hare. We drew rabbits and then we looked up six words that we'll see in the story. Use two of these to write a sentence about a race: flashy, rude, slowpoke, victory, perseverance, reward

SOCIAL STUDIES: Today we began our new social studies unit: Safari in Kenya. You have a choice for homework: Tell one thing you know about Kenya, or write a question asking about something you don't know about Kenya.

SPELLING: Write each of your spelling words neatly in a box:

Answer these without using a calculator.

$43 + 55 =$

$52 + 32 =$

$18 + 45 =$

$31 - 9 =$

$22 - 5 =$

$56 - 30 =$

$\underline{\quad} + \underline{\quad} = 126$
